

MCAS Futenma Surface Area

(as of March 2013)

480.6ha Approx. 100 times the Tokyo Dome

MCAS Futenma is located in the center of Ginowan City and consumes 1/4 of the city's total surface area (approx. 19.7km²). Additionally, with Camp Zukeran, located in the northern part of the city, taking up another 1.569km² of the city, 32% of the total city's surface area is occupied by U.S. military installations. (as of March, 2013)

City's Population Density

(as of Dec. 2014)

Approx. 4,906/km²

Excluding Base Surface Area...

Approx. 7,254/km²

The population density of the city excluding the land occupied by MCAS Futenma exceeds that of Tokyo (6017/km²) and Osaka (4670/km²).

(Ginowan City Population: 96663 surveyed Dec. 2014)

(Tokyo and Osaka population density taken from 2010 national census)

Total Days the Environmental Standard Levels were Exceeded

174 Days (Fiscal year 2013 Ue-Ojana District)

The Ministry of Environment establishes environmental standards on ideal living environments with the concept of maintaining the standardized levels in various environmental aspects. In, fiscal year 2013, there was a total of 174 days when the noise level exceeded that of the established standard in the Ue-Ojana Area. The noise pollution greatly affects these residents' daily lives night and day.

